

Using Golden ratio

About akounto

Akounto is derived from 'Akaunto', a Japanese word which stands for "Account". Akounto takes its inspiration from the Japanese culture where accuracy, precision and perfection are the key components to hold financial matters.

Akounto's mission is to thrive your knowledge and success. We do so by helping your business with cost-efficient bookkeeping, tax planning and accounting in a simpler way, whether you are a start up or a big name in the market. We strive to help your business become sustainable and establish a region in the corporate world.

Color:

Known for its trust and steadfastness, we have used Blue as the base color. Translating it into 'Dodger Blue' communicates the brand as solid, mindful and intellectually alleviating.

Core Value:

Trust* Confidence*
Transparency* Competence*

We don't believe in building trust, we believe what we do makes us trustworthy. Akounto does so by building your confidence and working with you with utmost transparency and privacy. Our competence is years of thoughtful experience and excellence in the world of accounting.

